First Ejection		Subsequent Ejections		No Squadron Reassignment
Colonel: You're about to receive a Golden Sun for ejecting and surviving... but you only get one of those per career. After that, ejecting just wastes the Confederation's starfighters.  Maverick: I understand, colonel. I'll keep it in mind.  Colonel: I'm counting on it, $R.		Colonel: That ship you just bailed out of cost over a hundred million credits. It'll be weeks or months before the Tiger's Claw receives a replacement.  Maverick: I know, sir.  Colonel: If you have no choice but to eject, then do it...                  ...but don't let me catch you bailing out of a ship you could've flown home.

Enyo System

Enyo 1 Rec Room

Shotglass: Belly on up, friend, and take a load off. You must be $C. I'm Shotglass. Welcome aboard the Claw. Used to be a pilot myself...
...till the fleabags shot me up so bad I couldn't fly. I guess I flew with most every pilot on the Claw. So if you want to know how one pilot or another flies...
...old Shotglass is the guy to ask!
Stop by when you're off duty and we'll talk more.

Angel: Bonjour, Lieutenant. You are called $C, no? I am called Angel. I am just reviewing some figures on our recent encounters with the Kilrathi. You would like to know what I have learned, perhaps? The Dralthi is the Kilrathi fighter seen most in this sector. These figures show that 1.4 missiles are required to destroy the Dralthi, while over seven direct laser hits are necessary to destroy the same vessel. I hope this information is useful to you, Lieutenant.

Paladin: Och, laddy, take a seat an' tilt a glass with ol' Paladin. I recall once when I was just a lieutenant like yourself there... We were flyin' patrol o'er Accord, the fourth planet in the Alliance System. These four Kilrathi Salthi came zoomin' in with the sun at their backs...
Angel: What is the point, monsieur? There is one, oui?
Paladin: I was leadin' up ta it, lass. That day, we learned that a Salthi will always turn ta the left... It's got somethin' ta do with the way 'er engines an' ducts are arranged. So when you tail a Salthi, watch ta the left... That's where 'e'll go when 'e makes 'is break!

Mission Briefing, Enyo System, T hours, D.

Colonel: We've got a lot of work to do, people, so let's get to it. The Tiger's Claw dropped from jumpspace seven hours ago, at 0800. Blue Devil squadron had first patrol. You Killer Bees have the next shift. You rookies'll be flying with experienced pilots on your first missions. I want the rookies to fly as wingleaders. You vets keep an eye on the kids out there. Here are the assignments.

$C, you're leading Alpha wing. Spirit will fly on your wing. She's quiet, but she knows the ropes. You're the wingleader, but if Spirit talks, you be sure and listen. Got it?

Maverick: Yes, sir.

Colonel: Good. Here's your patrol plan, then.

Computer, display Alpha.
You'll check three possible jump points, at about 20,000 clicks out. There are asteroids near Nav Points 2 and 3, so stay on course.

Any questions?

Spirit: Yes, commander. What are we to do if we encounter the enemy?

Colonel: Engage, if the odds look good. Let $C make the call.

Next is Beta wing...

Your thoughts wander as the commander makes the rest of the assignments.

Colonel: ...and back to the Tiger's Claw.

Remember ... this is no trainsim. If you see the enemy, he'll be out to kill you. Be sure you do it to him before he does it to you. Squadron dismissed.

You Flew Well		You Flew Poorly
Colonel: Welcome back, $C. Looks like you survived your first trip out.		Colonel: I see you made it back. . . barely.
Spirit's Alive	Spirit's Dies	Spirit's Alive	Spirit's Dies
Spirit: He is a very able pilot, commander. It is an honor to fly on his wing. Colonel: That's high praise coming from Spirit. You should be proud, $C.	Maverick: But Spirit, sir. She didn't make it back... Colonel: This is a war, son, not some flight simulator. Young men and women die in wars. She knew that when she signed up. You didn't do anything wrong $C, so don't hold yourself responsible.	Colonel: After a performance like that, you're both lucky to be alive. Spirit, I know you can do better than that. Spirit: I'm sorry, sir. I shall try to do better in the future. Colonel: And you, $C. What have you got to say for yourself? Maverick: Nothing, sir. Colonel: In any case, you flew well out there. I've reviewed the mission report from your flight recorder.

You got away pretty clean, sir!

Rec Room

Shotglass: Hear you flew with Spirit yesterday, $C.

Spirit's Alive

Shotglass: She's a quiet little thing, but she's a heckuva flier. She's rock-steady, follows orders, don't fire till she's sure of her shot. I was always glad to have Spirit on my wing when I was still flying.

Spirit's Dead

Shotglass: Damn shame she didn't make it back. Don't take it personal, kid. Spirit was a good flier, and she knew the risks. Still, I wish I had my hands on the fleabag that got her!

Hunter: You're $C, right? They call me Hunter, mate. G'day.

Spirit's Alive

Hunter: Spirit 'ere was tellin' me about your tumble with the hairballs.

Spirit's Dead

Hunter: Sounds like you really mixed it up out there. 'At's the way, isn't it, mate? Just you and some hairball, twistin' about, tryin' t'get a missile lock... Formations, uniforms, medals, wingmen ... that's all sheepdip. All a bruce can count on out there is 'imself and 'is missiles.

Spirit: Konichi-wa, $N-san. Please take a seat. If I may say so, you are doing quite well.

Flew Well

Spirit: Colonel-sama is most pleased with your performance thus far. There was no need to praise me before him, though, honorable $R. The credit for a mission's success is due its leader, not his assistants.

Flew Poorly

Spirit: I see by your expression that you do not believe me. I assure you I speak what is in my heart.

Flew Well

Flew Poorly

Spirit: We both survived to challenge our enemies another day. No mission from which you return is a total failure. Remember that. Our race needs live pilots far more than it needs dead heroes.

Escort it to Nav Point 1... ...and on to Nav 2, where it will initiate jump sequence. Once it's jumped out, you'll return by the most direct route. Remember...your job is to make sure that transport jumps out. I don't want you leaving her to chase down bogies. If the enemy retreats, you stay with the transport. Questions?

McAuliffe System

Rec Room

Shotglass: That's Iceman and Knight over there.
 Knight's a darned reliable pilot...
 a solid shot, a steady flier.
 Not flashy at all ... He's sort of a craftsman. Gets the job done, though.
 Iceman, though, now he's an artist.
 Best pilot on the Tiger's Claw.
 Lives to fly and to fight. He's totally ruthless, and completely deadly.
 Some of the pilots say he's got freon for blood...
 ...at least, that's where he got the call sign.

Knight: $C, right? I'm Knight. Welcome to the Blue Devils.
 Ever flown Scimitars before? I think you're going to like them.
 A Scimitar isn't quite as fast or nimble as a Hornet...
 ...but she's got twice the armor, as well as heavier guns.
Iceman: And she handles like a Centaurian mud pig.
Knight: Iceman here'll try to tell you speed and handling'll save your butt..
 ..but I'll take an extra three centimeters of durasteel plating any day!

Iceman: $C. They call me Iceman.
 Don't let Knight fool you.
 The Scimm's a gun-heavy slug.
 Forget finesse ... just head straight in, guns blaring.
 Give me a ship that takes skill...
 A Raptor, even a Hornet...
 ...or one of those new Rapiers...
 If half of what they say is true, the Rapier's a true artist's ship!

Mission Briefing. McAuliffe System, T hours, D.

Fifteen minutes into the briefing...

Colonel: Alright, then. Beta wing will be led by $C.

Paladin, you'll be flying on his wing.

Paladin: An' I canna tell you 'ow I'm lookin' forward to it, Colonel.

Colonel: Right.

Since we jumped into the McAuliffe system just a few hours ago...

...we're still running preliminary patrols.

$C, you'll be flying a four-point route, checking several potential jump points.

Here's your flight plan...

Just fly to the Nav Points, and make sure they're clear.

Long-range scanners indicate some sort of debris near Nav 3...

We have reason to believe this might be a Kiltrathi mine field...

...so be especially careful in that area.

Questions?

Alright, then. Delta wing is Iceman and Angel...

You listen as the colonel completes the mission assignments.

Colonel: That's everyone. Last questions?

Rec Room

Shotglass: You met Maniac and Bossman over there yet? Maniac's a real lunatic...a good pilot, but way too erratic. He was just comin' up when the fleabags put me outa commission. Just between you and me, I'd rather fly alone than with Maniac on my wing. Bossman's another story, though. He's a real team leader. A crack pilot, with 17 years behind him. Flown ever'thin' in the Terran fleet... and blown up at least one of every class the Kilrathi have.

Bossman: Sit down, $C. They call me Bossman. I've been watching you. You look good for a rookie. You handle yourself well in a dogfight... ...but we're going to be facing some bigger ships soon.

Maniac: All right! Some serious action!

Bossman: A lot of young pilots get excited when they see their first destroyer...

Maniac: Just what do you mean by that, Boss?

Bossman: ...they lose their heads and go straight in for the battleship. Then a light fighter they forgot about blasts them from behind. Big ships move slow and turn like pigs. Thing to do is clean up the fighter cover first... ...then go in for the battleship.

Maniac: Hey, $C. I'm Maniac. Glad to meetcha. Bossman says we're gonna see some action against some battleships soon. I can't wait... Dodging flak and fighter cover to make a missile run at a destroyer... Man, that'll be a rush! Get in there quick, waste the mama cat... ...then pick the kittens off one by one. That's the way to do it!

Mission Briefing. McAuliffe System, T hours, D.

Colonel: Well, boys and girls, things are getting ready to heat up. The Confederation is getting ready to mount a major offensive...
...so we're expecting several supply ships within the next 48 hours. But scanners show increased Kilrathi activity in this system. We've got to clean up the enemy presence here at McAuliffe...
...before the tankers and 'sports start to arrive tomorrow. We've detected a large bogie about 90,000 clicks out. It jumped in about 20 minutes ago, and seems to be headed this way. It might be just a transport, but it's probably a small warship.

Paladin is Alive

Paladin is Dead

Colonel: $C, you and Paladin are going to go out and get a look at it...

Colonel: $C, I want you to go out and get a look at it...

Colonel: ...and destroy it if you can.

Paladin is Alive

Paladin is Dead

Paladin: Faith, lad, but that'll be a challenge...

Colonel: Here's your flight plan...
If the bogie continues its present course and speed...
...you should meet it here, at Nav 1.
We've detected a fighter escort in the area as well...
...so be on the lookout for additional bogies.

The colonel quickly goes through the rest of the assignments, dispatching other wings to check out other bogies in the system.

Colonel: Squadron dismissed.

Mission Briefing. McAuliffe System, T hours, D.

Colonel: We're going to be leaving McAuliffe late tomorrow... but first, we've got a half-dozen 'sports and tankers coming in. With at least one Kilrathi carrier in the system, ...we're expecting the hairballs to make a play for most of the 'sports. Here are the assignments for transport escorts...

The colonel makes the assignments for the wings. You draw the final run.

Paladin Alive

Colonel: $C and Paladin will take the last detail.

Paladin Dead

Colonel: $C, you'll be flying the last detail solo.

Colonel: Computer, display Psi.
You'll rendezvous with a Drayman-class tanker here, at Nav 1. As soon as it arrives, the tanker will head for the Tiger's Claw. It'll be moving at top speed, and won't deviate from its shortest course... So you'll have to protect it from any attackers. Stay close ... don't let enemy fighters draw you away from the tanker. Now, one more thing, boys and girls... Intelligence indicates Bhurak Starkiller may be in the system.

Angel: Bhurak Starkiller, sir?

Colonel: He's one of Kilrah's best ... flies a Salthi light fighter. Our records credit him with 64 kills, counting fighters and battleships. So let's all be extra careful out there, alright?
Squadron dismissed.

Gateway System Rec Room

Shotglass: That's Iceman and Knight over there.
Knight's a darned reliable pilot...
a solid shot, a steady flier.
Not flashy at all ... He's sort of a craftsman. Gets the job done, though.
Iceman, though, now he's an artist.
Best pilot on the Tiger's Claw.
Lives to fly and to fight. He's totally ruthless, and completely deadly.
Some of the pilots say he's got freon for blood...
...at least that's where he got the call sign.

Knight: $C, right? I'm Knight. Welcome to the Killer Bees.
You're flying a Hornet right now, right? Ever flown a Scimitar?
It isn't quite as fast or nimble as a Hornet...
...but she's got twice the armor, as well as heavier guns.
Iceman: And she handles like a Centaurian mud pig.
Knight: Iceman here'll try to tell you speed and handling'll save your butt...
..but I'll take an extra three centimeters of durasteel plating any day!

Iceman: $C. They call me Iceman.
Don't let Knight fool you.
The Scimm's a gun-heavy slug.
Forget finesse ... just head straight in, guns blaring.
Give me a ship that takes skill...
A Raptor, even a Hornet...
...or one of those new Rapiers...
If half of what they say is true, the Rapier's a true artist's ship

Colonel: Right.

Just fly to the Nav Points, and make sure they're clear.

We're picking up some debris around Nav Point 1.

Probably just asteroids, but it could be a Kilrathi mine field...,

Shotglass: You met Maniac and Bossman over there yet? Maniac's a real lunatic...a good pilot, but way too erratic. He was just comin' up when the fleabags put me out of commission. Just between you and me, I'd rather fly alone than with Maniac on my wing. Bossman's another story, though. He's a real team leader. A crack pilot, with 17 years behind him. Flown everything in the Terran fleet... and blown up at least one of every class the Kilrathi have.

Bossman: Sit down, $C. They call me Bossman. I've been watching you. You look good for a rookie. You handle yourself well in a dogfight... ...but we're going to be facing some bigger ships soon. All right Some serious action!

Bossman: A lot of young pilots get excited when they see their first destroyer...

Maniac: Just what do you mean by that, Boss?

Bossman: ...lose their heads and go straight in for the battleship. Then a light fighter they forgot about blasts them from behind. Big ships move slow and turn like pigs. Thing to do is clean up the fighter cover first... ...then go in for the battleship.

Maniac: Hey, $C. I'm Maniac. Glad to meetcha. Bossman says we're gonna see some action against some battleships soon. I can't wait... Dodging flak and fighter cover to make a missile run at a destroyer... Man, that'll be a rush! Get in there quick, waste the mama cat, ...then pick the kittens off one by one. That's the way to do it!

Gimle 1 Rec Room

Shotglass: Hey, there, $C. Welcome to the Gimle System...

Gimle's habitable world is one huge forest...
Kilrathi nobles and officers come here to hunt with their bare claws.
I hear they bring human POWs here and turn them loose in the woods...
...just so those hairy brutes can get their kicks by huntin'em down!
Man, I'll be glad when we kick those fleabags outta the sector!

Angel: Ah, bonjour, $R
I have been reviewing our data on the Kilrathi starfighters.
Our information indicates that in all cases...
...their side armor is weaker than that to the front or rear.
Iceman: One more reason not to play chicken with a Jalthi.
Angel: Indeed, monsieur. The best attack line would be from the flanks.

Iceman: Let me give you a tip, kid...
Never rush a Jalthi head on.
A Jalthi carries six front-mounted laser cannons...
First shot takes out your shields...
...next'll blow through the cockpit into the reactor.

Mission Briefing. Gimle System, 7 hours, D.

Colonel: All right, boys and girls, listen up.
We've just jumped into the Gimle System, and we've got some work to do.
Gimle has been occupied by the Kilrathi for some time.
The Claw is not the first Terran ship to arrive...
...we've got a handful of battleships already in system.
Most of these ships are currently under attack by Kilrathi...
...so we'll be dispatching fighters to help in their defense.

The colonel quickly assigns the wings. Yours is the sixth assigned.

Colonel: $C, you'll lead Zeta Wing to assist an Exeter-class Destroyer.
Angel will fly on your wing.
Here's the scenario...

Shotglass: Hey, $C. How's it goin'?
 You heard about those new Rapiers? Ever'body's talkin' about 'em.
 I'm not so sure about 'em, though.
 I flew jus' about my whole career in Scimitars an' Raptors.
 Liked the Raptor best, even though she didn't handle too good.
 She sure was fast once you got her goin', though!

Hunter: $C, mate Have you 'eard the news?
 The Claw's gettin' a prototype Rapier to test fly!
 I've been lookin' over the specs on 'er.
 She's tagged a light fighter, but she's better armed than a Scimitar.
 There's a pair of laser cannons, for distance work...
 ...an' a set of neutron guns, for the dirty infightin'!

Maniac: I'm lookin' forward to seein' one of these new Rapiers!
 They say she's got tougher shields than anything in the fleet.
 She must be just about invulnerable!
Hunter: 'Ang about, there, mate...
 She may 'ave God's own shields, but she's armored like a light fighter.
 If they knock down the shields, she's no tougher than a Hornet.
Maniac: Wow, I never thought about that...

Gimle 3 Rec Room

Shotglass: You hear what they're sayin' in Blue Devil Squadron? Word is, one of their boys ran into Dakhath on patrol yesterday. You know Dakhath, right? The Kilrathi ace that flies a Dralthi? He's got 78 confirmed kills, counting fighters and capital ships. They say his name means 'Deathstroke' in Kilrathi...
... 'cause how he gets his jollies.
He likes to shoot pilots who've ejected as they wait for a pick up.

Knight: So, $C. Now you've flown a Rapier. You like it?
You nod as you sip your drink.

Knight: I read that we're getting the first Rapier squadron on active duty. Colonel's already named the squadron Black Lion...
I wonder who'll be assigned to it?

Iceman: Lot of talk going around about this Dakhath guy. Well, don't sweat that fuzzball too much.

Knight: Casey ran into Dakhath a couple of years ago, near Planck's Star.

Iceman: Dakhath got his rep by shooting helpless men...

...but he's not so tough if you're still in your ship.

Watch him when you're on his tail.

He likes to burn out with his afterburners...

or he'll try to get behind you with a kickstop.

Mission Briefing. Gimle System, 7 hours, D.

Colonel: All right, boys and girls...
...we got several groups of bogies on the move.
Either the Kilrathi are pulling out of Gimle...
...or they're gearing up to push us out.
Either way, we got to find out what they're up to.
First up on the hit parade is what looks like a squadron of fighters.

Angel's Alive

Colonel: $C and Angel will fly Tau Wing to check it out.

Angel's Dead

Colonel: $C, you're flying Tau Wing to check it out.

Colonel: Computer, display Tau.
Nav 1 indicates their last confirmed position.
We believe the bogies are Dralthi...
...and we estimate their present location here.
If you think you can take them, go ahead and engage...
...but break off if the squadron turns out to be too big to handle.
Remember, $C, I need information worse than I need heroes.
Any questions, then, Tau Wing?

Angel's Alive

Angel: I have heard that the Kilrathi ace Dakhath is in this sector...

Angel's Dead

Maverick: I've heard Dakhath, the Dralthi ace, is in Gimle. Is that true?

Colonel: We believe he may be, so be careful.
Dakhath is very dangerous ... we need to know if he's here.

Maverick: Yes, sir.

Colonel: Right, then. Let's move along.

The colonel runs through the rest of the assignments...
...dispatching four more wings to check out other bogies.

Brimstone 1 Rec Room

Shotglass: Hey, $C. Get you something?
Been awfully quiet 'round here since we jumped into Brimstone.
Scuttlebutt is that there are four Kilrathi bases on Brimstone II...
...an' we're lookin' at some serious action, real soon.

Hunter: G'day, $C ... pull up a chair.
Maniac an' I 'ave just been tradin' war stories...
...trying to come up with some clues on 'ow the Kilrathi think.
Maniac: That is, WHEN they think.
Hunter: Oh, they'll surprise you, sometimes, mate.
Their favorite trick is to set up a good ambush...
...so if you see a lone furball with a broke wing, watch y'self.
'E's got mates right around the corner.

Maniac: Have a seat, $C.
Hope we see some action soon...
...I'm looking forward to scoring some more kills.
By the way, I hear we'll be flying together.
They say you're almost as good as me.

Mission Briefing. Brimstone System, T hours, D.

Colonel: Good morning, boys and girls. Welcome to the Brimstone System. As you know, there are several Kiltrathi military bases on the second planet. We are here to scout the system before a possible Confederation invasion.

Maniac: Way to go, Chief! Finally, we get some real action!

Colonel: That will mean a heavy patrol schedule...

Maniac: Patrol schedule? Aw, hell, that's no fun!

Colonel:...as we gather intelligence on the strength of local Kiltrathi forces. You're first in the rotation, $C. For your wing, I want you to take...

...Maniac, I think. He seems to be anxious for an assignment.

Maniac: Oh, sure. Send me.

I wouldn't want you to trouble Iceman or Hunter with a routine patrol.

Colonel: Stow it, Marshall. There's always lavatories to scrub, if you'd rather.

Maniac: ...

Colonel: I thought so.

Now, let's look at your patrol plan, $C.

It's a simple three-point route, with a few asteroids near Nav 2.

Keep alert. We really don't know what to expect out there...

...but we know we're in hairball territory.

Just fly your route and get back with a report...

...and if Maniac gives you any static...

...you have my permission to shoot him to pieces.

Maverick: Should I use missiles, sir, or ship's guns?

Colonel: Guns, $C. Save your missiles for important targets.

Maniac: What?!

Colonel: Here's the flight plan...
You'll meet an Exeter-class destroyer at Nav 1, right here.
You'll fly straight to Nav 1, to make the rendezvous on schedule...
...but you'll bring the destroyer back via Nav 2.
This will keep the Exeter clear of the asteroids between here and Nav 1.
Be sure and stay close to the destroyer.
If you run into enemy fighters, they'll try to draw you off...

Brimstone 3 Rec Room

Shotglass: Hey, $C.

Y'know, a couple of boys from Tactical were in here earlier...
They were sayin' it was gettin' ugly in on the planet, Brimstone II.
The Kilrathi bases planetside are startin' to get desperate...
Looks like the furballs're ready to try just about anything.
One fellow said it'd all come down to supplies.
If they can get enough supply ships past us to the planet...
...their bases on Brimstone II might throw off our blockade.

Knight: Hello, $C. I was just trying to draw Casey here into a conversation.
We're expecting to strike a number of Kilrathi supply convoys soon...
I was hoping to get some advice from our quiet comrade.

Iceman: Shoot 'em from behind.
Their armor is weak around the engines.
Couple of good shots in the pipes...
...and she blows. Boom. Game over.

Iceman: $C.

Colonel says we'll be going after transports soon.
Just one thing to remember with big ships...
Missiles.
Save your missiles for the mother ship.
Your guns won't even scratch their paint...
...so when you're out of missiles...
...it's time to head home.

Mission Briefing. Brimstone System, T hours, D.

Colonel: As you know, people, several warships have arrived in the last 48 hours. Most of these have headed in to beseige Kiltrathi bases on Brimstone II. Under this blockade, the planet is desperate for munitions and supplies. The Empire has dispatched dozens of Dorkir 'sports...
...hoping at least a few of them will get past us and in to Brimstone II. Our mission is to make sure they don't get there.

Tactical is pretty sure this is one of those inbound Dorkir.
We've detected at least four smaller bogies nearby...
...so watch out for fairly strong fighter escort.

The colonel quickly assigns the rest of the wings...
...sending them to intercept other transports headed for Brimstone.

Colonel: Every transport that gets past us drags the seige out another week...

Colonel: So the Exeter jumped out all right? Maverick: Yes, sir. ## Chengdu 3 Rec Room

Shotglass: Knight tells me the colonel's movin' you to Blue Devil Squadron. That'll put you on a Scimitar, like I flew when I was your age. Darn fine ship in her day, though she looks a little outdated now... The Scimitar mounts a pair of mass driver cannons...
...instead of the Hornet's lasers.
They fire a lot farther than laser bolts, and hit with more punch...
...but the projectiles move a lot slower.
That makes you use 'em closer up, in spite of the extra range.
Still, those extra clicks are good against big, slow ships, like tankers.

Knight: Hey, $C, you hear about the new assignments? The colonel said he's moving you to a Scimitar in Blue Devil Squadron. Ever flown Scimitars before? I think you're going to like them. A Scimitar isn't quite as fast or nimble as a Hornet...
...but she's got twice the armor, as well as heavier guns.
Iceman: And she handles like a Centaurian mud pig.
Knight: Iceman here'll try to tell you speed and handling'll save your butt...
..but I'll take an extra three centimeters of durasteel plating any day!

Iceman: $C. They call me Iceman. Don't let Knight here fool you about the Scimitar. It's a gun-heavy slug. Forget finesse in a Scimitar. Just head straight in, guns blaring. Give me a ship that lets me use my skill...
A Raptor, even a Hornet...
...or one of those new Rapiers
If half of what they say is true, the Rapier's a true artist's ship!

Shotglass: Hey, $C. Glad to see you again. We just jumped in to Dakota System, you know. It's basically an agro colony, but they've had an outbreak of Watson's Disease. The colonists here're a proud bunch, an' they waited to call for help. That's bad news. Watson's can wipe out a whole city in just a few weeks. There's no cure yet, but the Confederation's 'sportin' in a vaccine.

Maniac: First off, let's watch the squirt cracks. And second... 'Course there're a couple of pilots I don't mind flying with. You're not too bad, Hunter -- almost as good as me. And there's Iceman... Ice is scary, man. I mean, I'm in this for the flying... He's in it for the killing, I think.

Mission Briefing. Dakota System, T hours, D.

Twenty minutes into the briefing.

Colonel: As you may have heard, there's been an outbreak of Watson's Disease here. It's spreading across the fourth planet, Fargo, like wildfire. If we don't get a vaccine down there soon, that colony's history. We've been ordered to provide primary cover for medical transports. Your job will be to cover the Draymans as they come and go. Gamma wing will consist of $C and Knight. I'm counting on you two to come through...
...and so are the colonists down on Fargo.

Computer, display Gamma.

You will proceed first to Nav 1, escorting an outbound hospital ship. Your objective is to protect her from the Kilrathi until she makes her jump out. Once she's gone, go to Nav 2, where you'll rendezvous with another 'sport. Bring this Drayman back to the Tiger's Claw in one piece...

Shotglass: $C! You're big news lately. Heard you had to take out some Krants last time out. Glad to see you made it back in one piece. Those babies can be tough...
...but I hear the Jalthi's even tougher. One of those six-shooters on your tail, you can kiss it goodbye. But I'll bet if you get low an' behind a Jalthi, you'd toast it. She's got no rear visibility, and big ol' bullseye exhausts. Bad design no matter how many guns she's got up front. Just jam a missile up those rear pipes and – BOOM! No more kitty.

Knight: Hey, $C. Have a seat. I've heard some talk lately that burns me up. Someone's saying I'm unsafe to fly with...and that I'm a cat-lover. Well, I won't stand for that kind of slander. It's not true. I may not be as high-flying as Hunter, but I get the job done...in one piece. But hey, you're not the guy to complain to...after all, we've flown together now. We must fight as if there were no tomorrow, for in truth... ...that is the case. Every day, the Kilrathi bring up more troops. They challenge us harder each time we fly. The very future of humanity rests with us. A heavy burden... ...but one we must bear. For if we don't, who will?

Paladin is Alive	Paladin is Dead
------------------	-----------------

Shotglass: Go ask Paladin ... I think he's tangled with him before.

Shotglass: Ask around ... someone's got to have heard something about him.

Shotglass: Take care of yourself, $C.

Paladin is Alive	Paladin is Dead
------------------	-----------------

Bossman: Ah, $C. Join our party.

Bossman: Ah, $C. Join me. We have not had a chance to talk much.

Bossman: We have done well to this point. I believe you have played a major part. However, should we falter now, I fear that we will be pushed back to our colonies. But that is not likely. You, myself, all of us can affect that outcome. Think about that when next you fly. It will guide your actions.

Paladin: Well now, lad. 'Tis good to see you again. Have a seat and tilt a glass. I hear ol' Shotglass rumblin' on about one o' the Kilrathi aces. Last I 'eard, laddie, the only ace around these parts was Bakhtosh Redclaw. T'was back a few years when I had a tussle with him. He's one o' their nobles, so it's said. While most Kilrathi look at humans as animals... ..he thinks that we're not even that high or mighty. Anyhow, lad, I was servin' on a cruiser when he led a Jalthe attack on our ship. He's easily the deadest aim that Kilrah's got to offer. He took out four o' me mates before we knew what hit us. Keep an eye out for him, lad. He's a tough warrior.

Mission Briefing. Dakota System, T hours, D.

Knight is Dead

Colonel: We can't spare any backup, $C. You think you can do this alone?

Maverick: No problem, sir.

Colonel: There is something you don't yet know, $C.

Our spotters have placed a Kiltrathi ace, Bakhtosh Redclaw, with the convoy.

He's a Kiltrathi nobleman, and the deadliest shot in the entire Kiltrathi navy.

Here's the scenario for this one.

You'll first intercept a Dorkir-class tanker at the jump point near Nav 1.

Blow her to bits and proceed to Nav 2.

At that point, you should sight at least one Kiltrathi troop transport.

Those transports are your main objective ... and probably the best defended.

You are to engage and destroy all Kiltrathi transports. No survivors.

You watch yourself with Redclaw, but concentrate your fire on the 'sports.

Maverick: Yes, sir. You said there's heavy enemy activity. Any details?

Colonel: The Kilrathi have been moving heavy fighters into this sector, $C.

I expect you'll be running into Gratha, maybe Jalthi...

The pilots all seem to be rookies, but there are lots of them.

Anything else?...Good. That's all then.

Be careful and remember -- I want everyone back for the TCSO show!

Squadron dismissed.

Colonel: That was an impressive display of teamwork, gentlemen. With the supplies on that 'sport we can kick Kilrah tail in this system. And the TCSO show will go on as scheduled. Good job all around. Maverick: It was dicey there on the way back, sir, but we did the best we could. Colonel: Dicey's an understatement, $C, and your best was pretty damn good. Shotglass: $C How's it goin'?
 Heard you had to take out some Gratha tryin' to bring that Drayman in.
 Glad to see you made it back in one piece. Those babies are tough...
 ...but I hear the Jalthi's even tougher.
 One of those six-shooters on your tail, you can kiss it goodbye.
 But I'll bet if you get low an' behind a Jalthi, you'd toast it.
 She's got no rear visibility, and big ol' bullseye exhausts.
 Bad design, no matter how many guns she's got up front.
 Just jam a missile up those rear pipes and -- BOOM No more kitty.

Knight: Hey, $C. Have a seat.
 I've heard some talk lately that burns me up.
 Someone's saying I'm unsafe to fly with...and that I'm a cat-lover.
 Well, I won't stand for that kind of slander. It's not true.
 I may not be as high-flying as Hunter, but I get the job done...in one piece.
 But hey, you're not the guy to complain to...after all, we've flown together now.
 You know you can count on me. It's just a matter of trust.
 Thanks for the shoulder, $C.

Knight is Alive	Knight is Dead
Spirit: Join me, $C. Knight is poor company and I feel the need to talk...	Spirit: Welcome, $C. Join me won't you? I am in need of company...
Spirit: I have been studying the history and progress of the war... ...and I fear things do not go well for us. We are in grave danger, and must be ever diligent, ever alert... We must fight as if there were no tomorrow, for in truth... ...that is the case...every day, the Kilrathi bring up more troops. They penetrate deeper into human space each time we fly. The very future of humanity rests with us. A heavy burden... ...but one we must bear. For if we don't, who will?

Colonel: Today's mission is a four-point patrol route. Computer, display Xi.
You'll pass through each Nav Point, checking for enemy activity. There's a field of what looks like asteroids around Nav 2... ...and another at Nav 4.
Now, remember, you ran into heavy fighters last time... and you can expect more of the same this time out...
In fact, intelligence reports that enemy traffic is heavier than ever. And our people on McLaren think they've spotted a new capital ship class. We're calling it 'Fralthi.' If you see it, observe as closely as you can. Any questions?
Maverick: Sir, if we spot this 'Fralthi,' should we engage?
Colonel: There's no need for heroics, $C. Just come back to tell us about it. Anything else?
All right, then. I'll expect a full report when you get back. Dismissed.

Colonel: Welcome back, $C. What's the word on the debris at Navs 2 and 4?
Reached Nav 4	Did Not Reached Nav 4
Maverick: Nav 4 was nothing -- just an asteroid field, easily bypassed.	Maverick: Sorry, sir, but we never made it to Nav 4.
Reached Nav 2	Did Not Reached Nav 2
Maverick: Nav 2 was a Kilrathi mine field -- tricky flying getting through there.	Maverick: Sorry, but we were waylaid before we got to Nav 2, sir.
Colonel: Okay, now let's cut to the chase -- any sign of the Fralthi?.
Did Not Find Fralthi	Found Fralthi
Maverick: Sorry, sir, but there were no Kilrathi capital ships to be found. Colonel: Well, maybe we'll spot her some other time...if she really exists.	Maverick: Yes, sir, and she's something to see. A large, heavily armed cruiser. And she has launch capabilities. She's like a smaller, faster Claw, sir.

	Maverick: Or, I guess I should say, she WAS something to see... And she HAD launch capability ... We got her, sir! We got her! Colonel: Well, gentleman, I am impressed. That's one for the record books. The brass will be very happy to hear this. Congratulations!	Colonel: Save the rest for Tactical, $C. Anything to add, Khumalo? Knight: $C's right, sir. The Fralthi is one tough ship... ...far more impressive than the Ralari. I'd add just one thing... The Kilrathi were all over us as soon as we showed up... Fighter cover was high, like they couldn't afford to lose the Fralthi. I'm betting they only have a few of them, maybe just the one... Colonel: Possible. Let the Intelligence boys figure that out. Full report by 0900.
Colonel: Anything else before we turn to the mission report? No? Good...

Port Hedland 3 Rec room

Shotglass: Hello, my boy. How's about a cool drink and a tall tale? Word is, we're pulling out soon ... maybe for the Rostov System. Remind me to tell you about a little place I know, when we get there. I heard that one of the Kilrathi aces is flying around these parts.

Paladin is Alive

Shotglass: Go and ask Paladin...I think he's tangled with him before.

Shotglass: Take care of yourself, $C.

Paladin is Dead

Shotglass: Ask around...someone's got to have heard something about him.

Paladin is Alive

Bossman: Ah, $C. Join our party.

Bossman: There is little time remaining to turn this war in our favor... Should we fail now, I fear that we will be pushed back to the Homeworlds. But there is always hope. You, myself, all of us can affect that outcome. Think about that when next you fly. It will guide your actions.

Paladin is Dead

Bossman: Ah, $C. Join me. We have not had a chance to talk much.

Paladin: Well now, lad. 'Tis good to see you again. Have a seat and tilt a glass. I hear ol' Shotglass rumblin' on about one o' the Kilrathi aces. Last I 'eard, laddie, the only ace around these parts was Bakhtosh Redclaw. T'was back a few years when I had a tussle with him. He's one o' their nobles, so it's said. While most Kilrathi look at humans as animals... ..he thinks that we're not even that high or mighty. Anyhow, lad, I was servin' on a cruiser when he led a Jalathi attack on our ship. He's easily the deadest aim that Kilrah's got to offer. He took out four o' me mates before we knew what hit us. Keep an eye out for him, lad. He's a tough warrior.

Mission Briefing. Port Hedland, T hours, D.

Colonel: We've got a Code Red out there, people...
Every Confederation ship in the system is under attack.
The rest of our fighters have been deployed...you Blue Devils will defend the Claw.

Knight is Alive

Knight is Dead

Colonel: $C and Knight...you two will form the final wing. $C will lead.

Colonel: Since Knight's no longer with us, you'll fly Sigma wing alone, $C.

Colonel: Listen close, boys, there's a complication...
One of our destroyers has sighted another Fralthi-class cruiser...
You'll need to move to assist the Exeter against several fighters...
...before you can continue on to attack this new Fralthi.
Computer, display Sigma.
First, you'll need to assist in the defense of the Tiger's Claw.
We'll have two more Scims in space before you...
...but there are four Jalthi closing with the Claw, so it won't be easy.
When you've cleaned up the Jalthi, move on to Nav 1...
...where you'll help defend one of our Exeters against a wing of Gratha.
If you're still in good enough shape after turning the Gratha away...
...I want you to fly on to Nav 2, the last known fix on this Fralthi.
Take a crack at her, if you can, but try not to get yourself killed.
That Fralthi has to be where all these fighters are coming from.
If we can take her out, we won't have so many furballs to worry about.
Very well. Good luck, boys.
Dismissed.

Kurasawa System

Kurasawa 1 Rec room

Shotglass: $C, how's it going?

So here we are, in Kurasawa. Kilrathi call it Warach Tha, they say. Empire's s'posed to have several bases on an' 'round the fourth planet...
...so I guess you boys'll be seein' some serious action soon.
Still, we're not the first Terran ship here...
I heard the Kilrathi in system are already half beat.

Angel: Allo, $C. You have a moment, no?

The Colonel has directed our crew chiefs to prepare our Rapiers for battle. I had hoped we would have flown them more before now. C'est la vie. Should you get the chance, let me know how they fly. It is tres important. Au revoir, $C.

Maniac: $C, am I glad to see you.

Maniac: Heard that we're about to raid some fuzzball bases. That'd be great I haven't shot at anything in a week... ...and I'm starting to get restless.

Mission Briefing. Kurasawa System, T hours, D.

Colonel: All right, boys and girls. Let's get to work.

First, I want to congratulate you all for your efforts at Dakota.

Our successes there were crucial to recent developments in the war effort.

The Kilrathi advance has been halted...

...and now the Confederation is on the offensive.

Now we're moving on the Kilrathi bases in the Kurasawa System.

These bases are vital to Kilrathi command and communication in the sector.

The Empire is currently trying to ferry troops and supplies to these bases...

...in a frantic attempt to defend them.

I'm sending my best pilots, in my best fighters, to head off these supplies.

The commander assigns several wings, led by Iceman, Hunter, and other aces.

Your assignment comes last...

Colonel: Theta is especially vital, so I'm sending you, $C, with Bossman as your wing.

Computer, display Theta Wing...

We've detected several Kilrathi fighters circling two nearby jump points.

One Dorkir-class transport has already jumped in here, at Nav 1a.

You'll intercept and destroy it, then move on to Nav 2...

...where another squadron of Kilrathi fighters awaits an incoming 'sport.

When you've taken care of any 'sports that appear at Nav 2...

...return to the Tiger's Claw via Nav 1b, in case there are any late arrivals.

Questions?

Bossman: Yes, Colonel. Do we have any intelligence regarding the contents of the 'sports?

Colonel: Nothing definite, Major...

...but that first Dorkir is especially well guarded.

It must be something -- or someone -- the hairballs don't want to lose.

If that's all the questions, then let's get into space.

Squadron dismissed.

Kurasawa 2 Rec room

Shotglass: Take a load off, $C. I've got good news. We just got a report from the seige force over Kurasawa IV. The CSS Suffolk just torched a Kilrathi communications station. That should keep those Kilrathi jerks in the dark for a while.

Bossman is Alive

Bossman is Dead

Shotglass: My regrets about Bossman ... he was a good man

Shotglass: I'll let you know if I hear anything else. See you, $C.

Knight: Good day, $C. Heard you're flying a Rapier these days. Is it really as quick as everyone says? I've got to see it in action. I just got back from a patrol out near Kurasawa IV. That was a nightmare. Me and Lightning were jumped by a couple of wings of Gratha. We managed to take out five of them before they got Lightning. If we'd had those Rapiers, I bet that we'd never have taken a hit. They're good ships. You're lucky to get to fly one out.

Spirit: Konichi-wa, $C-san. Do you have time to share? I am inspired by the reports of our successes. We are doing well. Still, I am sure that there are many battles left to be fought. The Kilrathi will not be vanquished until they are beaten on their own territory. Beware a desperate enemy, $C. They will stop at nothing to defeat you. Until we meet again.

Mission Briefing. Kurasawa System, 7 hours, D.

Colonel: O.K. Boys and girls, we've been lucky. Less than 4 hours ago, we received a Code Blue transmission... It seems our boys captured a Ralari-class destroyer in the Port Hedland System. Sector Command wants to use this ship in our siege here at Kurasawa. I've given my assurances that we'll bring her in intact. I'm sending a wing to rendezvous with the Ralari and escort it to the Claw.

Bossman is Alive

Bossman is Dead

Colonel: Bossman and $C, This one's yours. $C will fly lead.

Colonel: $C, you'll fly this one alone.

Maverick: Understood, Colonel.
Colonel: Here's the scenario...
 Computer, display Omicron.
 The Ralari entered the system at the jumppoint near Nav 1. There's an asteroid belt along the way. Keep your eyes peeled for trouble. Once you've arrived at the rendezvous point, you'll escort the destroyer back here. One other note. Our sensors show a Kilrathi force approaching at high speed. Mostly reruns, last I saw.
I mean, can't we ever get any new shows? What happened to the Confederate News Network?
It's getting harder to know what's going on before everyone else does around here.
After all, I've got a reputation as an omniscient bartender to uphold.

Hunter: Say there, mate. Got a minute?
I've 'ad a chat with the Colonel. 'E says we'll be flyin' together soon.
Let me give you a few notes on my style...before we launch.

Also, it never 'urts to check out ev'ry angle. Even if that means going against the plan.
After all, you just might find something you'd miss otherwise.

Iceman: $R.
Looks like we've got the hairballs on the run.
But I won't sleep well until they're out of the sector...

Mission Briefing. Kurasawa System, 7 hours, D.

Colonel: All right, people...here's what we've got. We've received a tight-band transmission from the Formidable, an Exeter-class destroyer. She's just come from a scrap, and she's in rough shape. Your mission will be to rendezvous with her, and guard her against further attack. Hunter and Waxman, you get the duty. Hunter will fly lead.

Meanwhile...

Win: Go To Venice System

Primitive alien village, Rostov System.

Lose: Go to Rostov System

As the Kiltrathi fleet flees Rostov before the advancing Human warships, a handful of Kiltrathi marines are stranded on Rostov's jungle world, where they are captured by the native sentients, the Mopoks.

Rostov System

Rostov 1 Rec room

Shotglass: Here we are at Rostov System, $C. You ever hear much about it? Her third planet's a jungle world, with a native race of primitive sentients. That means the Confederation won't colonize officially, except for scientific missions. Of course, that just leaves the planet open for unregulated settlement. Grey towns is what they call these unauthorized colonies. They're full of the usual spaceport scum-and-villainy crowd. There's a little place on Rostov III I know, Rita's Cantina... Great place to visit, but don't go in uniform! If you go, tell Rita ol' Shotglass sent you...she'll look after you while you're there.

Hunter: G'day $C. Grab a chair and have a cold one, mate. Best way to ready yourself for a good scrap.
Iceman: That's your opinion, Hunter.
Hunter: That it is, mate. After all, someone's got to show our boys how to relax. But don't let the Colonel catch you tippin' before a mission, though.

Iceman: $C.
 Rostov System's full of asteroids...
 ...heavy mineral resources.
 Since the Confederation's never officially settled it...
 ...'cause of the native sentients...
 ...we're us at a disadvantage defending against the Empire.
 That just makes Rostov more attractive to the Kilrathi.
 Minerals, jungle world, primitive race for slaves...
 The hairballs want this one bad...I can feel it.

Mission Briefing. Rostov System, T hours, D.

Colonel: Settle down, people. We've got a job to do, so let's get to work. As you know, Rostov System has been off limits for authorized colonization...
...because of the presence of the native sentient species, the Mopoks. Yet the system contains a profusion of mineral-rich asteroids...
...attracting the attention of the Empire of Kilrah. Unfortunately, the Kilrathi don't place the same importance on alien races that we do...
...so we're here to defend the system, its natives and its resources. We've received reports from our scientific missions on the third planet...
...indicating the presence of Kilrathi warships in the system. Our first job here is to recon the system, and locate all hostiles. $C, you'll lead the first patrol wing. Iceman will fly your wing. Here's your mission plan. You'll recon four potential jump points on this one. We suspect the Kilrathi are running supplies near Nav 2 or 3...
...so be especially alert in those areas. And keep your eyes open for asteroids...
...there are several rather dense asteroid fields in the area. Any questions?

Maverick: Colonel, if we spot supply ships near Nav 2 or 3, do we engage? Your call, $N. But if you decide to go for it, make sure you make it count. We can't allow the Kilrathi to establish a base in this system. Squadron dismissed.

Rostov 2 Rec room

Shotglass: Hey, $C. You look like a man who could use a drink. I've invented a new drink named for this system... I call it the Rostov Hairball...
...for all those Kilrathi ships on the rocks out there in the asteroid fields. Stop by when you're off duty and we'll have one.

Knight: Hello, $C. Have a seat. I hear the Kilrathi are hungry for the minerals in those asteroids out there. My guess is that they'll try to send in some heavier ships...
...so it's probably a good idea to hang onto a couple of missiles...
...in case you meet something big in the later stages of a mission. That way, you'll still have something with punch to throw at the big boys.

Maniac: Hey there, $C. How's it goin'? I sure wish that I could see some more action. But the Commander won't let me on the flight deck. He's still upset about that 'sport that I accidentally skragged...
Man, it wasn't my fault...I can't control a missile once it's launched. No one can! How am I supposed to stop it from acquiring a Drayman as its target? Besides, a transport should know enough to stay out of a fighter's way.

Mission Briefing. Rostov System, T hours, D.

Rostov 3 Rec room

Shotglass: Have a seat, $C. This place is getting empty these days. I hear you've been flying the Raptor. She's a good ship, fast but a bit clumsy. It's an aggressive ship...if you're an aggressive pilot. I'd bet you could stand off a Gratha or two with that kind of ship. Oh well...you've probably got a better feel for the ship than me. Pay no mind to this ol' has-been.

Angel: Bonsoir, mon ami. I have heard that the Kiltrathi are sending in their best pilots... It is my goal to encounter with one of their aces and shoot him down. But, I have not had the chance to engage one yet. If you are so lucky, you will try to kill him at all costs, non? That is the best way to ensure our victory.

Spirit: Greetings, $C-san.

Maniac is Alive	Maniac is Dead
Spirit: Have you heard what happened to Lt. Marshall on his last mission?	Spirit: Have you heard what happened to Lt. Bhutto on his last mission?

Spirit: It is remarkable that the brilliant young lieutenant has not yet destroyed the Tiger's Claw! He was pursuing a Dralhti as it rushed toward one of our transports. He locked a heat-seeking missile on its exhaust and launched... ...but at the last minute, the Dralhti looped back towards him. The missile lost its lock on the enemy, and acquired the transport as its target. The transport's engines were severely damaged, and the ship was soon destroyed. It is vital that one consider what is beyond his target before firing... ...as the lieutenant's unfortunate example demonstrates.

Mission Briefing. Rostov System, T hours, D.

Colonel: Let's go, people. There's no time to waste. About an hour ago, Tactical got a fix on a large bogie jumping into the system. We don't know what she is, but she's big. Very big. We need a visual on her, so Tactical can decide what to do about her.

Iceman is Alive

Iceman is Dead

Colonel: $C, you and Iceman are going to go take a look.

Colonel: $C, I want you to go out and get a look at her.

Colonel: Find out what you can, but make sure you get back with a report. And watch your back...the Kilrathi wouldn't send her in alone.

Maverick: Understood, sir.

Colonel: Good. Now let's go over the scenario...

We have a fix that puts her here, near Nav 2.

You can proceed through Nav 1, avoiding the asteroid field along the way...

...or you can pick your way straight through the rocks.

Tactical says neither route is significantly better, so it's your call.

Do you have any questions, $C?

Maverick: No sir.

Colonel: Good. Let's get out there, then.

Squadron dismissed.

Shotglass: Hey, $C. Sure is quiet around here. Y'know, Hubble's Star sure isn't where I thought we'd make a last stand. I mean, we've got active colonies here...research stations, too. I'd feel better if the Tiger's Claw could stick around another couple of days. Orders are orders, though.

Hunter: Hey there, $C. 'ave a minute, mate? Rumor 'as it those Kilrathi buzzards sent in another ace. I'd love to get a crack at 'im, mate. Maybe I'll get a chance yet. ## Mission Briefing. Hubble's Star System, T hours, D.

Colonel: We've got another Code Red situation here, people. As you know, we've dispatched most of our fighters to defend the colony on Hubble's Star IV. The main strength of the Kilrathi in system is now attacking Hubble's IV... ...but thirty minutes ago, another flight of bogies jumped into the system. These vessels disappeared among asteroids about 50,000 clicks from our position. With most of our fighters away, we're especially vulnerable... ...so I'm sending just one wing to recon these bogies... ...and perhaps make a quick strike against them.

While the Kilrathi starships conquer the Human fleet at Rostov, Kilrathi marines round up the native sentients, the Mopoks, and execute the Human scientists and soldiers who defended them.

Venice System

Venice 1 Rec room

Shotglass: So, $C, here we are in the Venice System, in the heart of Kiltrathi space. Course, the hairballs have their own name for it ... Kharak Tar, I think. Its habitable planet is a water world, like Port Hedland's. We call it Venice 'cause of ancient ruins on it, sinkin' into the ocean. But the Killie-cats aren't supposed to like the water...
...so they put their base in the system in an orbital station.
Tactical thinks if we find that station and take it out...
...we'll take out the brains of the Kiltrathi operations in the whole sector!

Hunter: $C, mate! I understand we'll be flyin' together for a while. Colonel's just moved me over to Black Lion squadron and Rapier fighters. I can't wait to get out in one of these new Rapiers, mate!
As I recall, she's got both lasers and neutron guns, right?
The lasers were designed for firin' at a distance...
...an' the neutron guns for extra punch up close!

Khajja's Dead	Khajja's Alive
Paladin: Och, laddy, glad to 'ear that Khajja bloke was done in.
Paladin: I 'ad a run in with Khajja a while back. 'E's the coldest furball I've ever seen! I was flyin' with Dragon, out of Yellow jacket squadron... We ran into Khajja the Fang while we were flyin' watchdog on a tanker. We shot 'is wingmen to bits, and put 'is own shields and lasers out... ...but still 'e keeps comin'! We're tight on is tail, but 'e holds 'iscourse and fires off a missile. One shot, right up the tanker's tailpipe, and she blows, big as day! An' while Dragon an' me are dodgin' 'er debris... ...the hairy bastard makes 'is escape!

Mission Briefing. Venice System, 7 hours, D.

Colonel: All right, boys and girls. Welcome to Venice. Confederate Sector Command believes this system is vital to the Kilrathi. Some intelligence reports indicate that Kilrathi High Command... ..may be located in a starbase somewhere in this system. If that is the case, we need to find it as quickly as possible. We'll immediately commence an intensive schedule of recon patrols... ..to identify all vessels and large objects in the system.

The commander quickly assigns four wings to patrol missions. Yours is the fifth assignment.

Colonel: $C, you'll lead Epsilon Wing. I'm putting Hunter with you.

Hunter: Glad to be on your wing, mate!

Colonel: Here's your route, gentlemen.

Computer, display Epsilon.

You'll fly a four-point patrol.

At the first Nav Point, you'll fly by one of our own Exeters.

From there on out, though, you'll be in unknown territory.

Now there's a lot of debris floating around out there...

...and we believe that a lot of it is going to be Kilrathi mines.

You'll be flying near debris at Navs 1, 2, and 3, so be careful.

And I want a report on the locations of any mine fields you encounter.

Any questions, $C? Hunter?

Maverick: What kind of enemy ships do you expect us to encounter?

Colonel: Since this is a major Kilrathi base system, we expect a strong enemy presence. You could meet almost anything out there.

Hunter: When we spot them, Colonel, do we mix it up?

Colonel: $C'll have to make that call...

...but I'd recommend engaging anything up to a Ralari.

Now, if there aren't any questions...

All right, then. Squadron dismissed.

Mission Briefing. Venice System, T hours, D.

Mission Briefing. Venice System, 7 hours, D.

Colonel: As some of you have heard, we've pinpointed this system's Kiltrathi base. The Tiger's Claw will begin to move into position to strike that base. Because Venice is a vital Kiltrathi system...
...we expect significant resistance as we move the Claw into position. For that reason, I'll be dispatching wings to fly on her flanks...
...to head off any attacks from the sides as we move.

The colonel assigns wings to fly above, below, and to port of the Claw.

Venice 4 Rec room

Shotglass: Hey, $C. You hear about Nifelheim and Tartarus? Our boys have kicked those damn hairballs out of both systems. They had footage of the ground battle on Tartarus on the trid. Man, it was great. Our marines, marchin' through the streets of the biggest Kilrathi colony... ..linin' the fleabags up and loadin' 'em onto prison ships. They're goin' to ship 'em back to Kilrah, lock, stock, and barrel. Me, I'd put 'em to work minin' salt or harvestin' fungus... ..but I don't reckon that'd work out too good. ...now that we're about to run their fuzzy tails out of the sector.

Mission Briefing. Venice System, 7 hours, D.

Colonel: All right, people, this is the big one. We've discovered that the enemy base here in the Venice System...
...is the Kilrathi High Command for this entire sector. We'll be moving in for the final assault on the starbase today. The Kilrathi will expect us to come in with all of our capital ships. That means they'll be looking for us in a few hours. Tactical has determined that if we send in a handful of starfighters...
...we'll be able to hit them before they've gathered around the base. We'll send several wings to punch through the perimeter to the base. Here are the assignments for each wing...

The colonel quickly runs through the wings of Black Lion Squadron.

Hunter is Alive

Colonel: $C, you and Hunter will head straight in, along this route...

Hunter is Dead

Colonel: $C, you'll head straight in, along this route...

Colonel: Computer, display Omega. Your first objective is the Fralthi-class light cruiser at Nav 1. She'll have fighter escort as well...
...but you're just to slip past them--don't stick around to dogfight. Then it's on to the Kilrathi base, here at Nav 2. There will be lots of fighters around the base, but try to ignore them. You're main objective is to take out that base. Questions?

Hunter is Alive

Hunter: What are we supposed to take the base out with, anyway, Colonel?

Hunter is Dead

Maverick: What are we supposed to hit the base with, sir?

Hell's Kitchen System

Hell's Kitchen 1 Rec room

Shotglass: So, $C. Here we are defending Hell's Kitchen...
...and its third planet, Toadstool, the most miserable world in the sector.
Its hot and muggy, with nothing but overgrown fungus for trees...
...and no way to dry anything out.
Only reason anyone lives here is to harvest the molds and funguses...
...that go into the best antibiotics and vaccines.
Still, Toadstool's only got facilities for a few thousand folks...
...and refugees from the big colonies we've lost will be arriving soon.
There's more than 100,000 people coming in from Gateway alone.
It's gonna get ugly down there on the planet, $C. Mark my words.

Knight: Back in a Scimitar again, eh, $C?
Just be sure and remember her limitations, and you'll be all right.
She's slower than anything in the Confederate fighter fleet...
...but she's still a match for most of the Kilrathi fighters.
Try to get in close, where your mass driver guns are most effective...
...and don't forget that two of those missiles are dumbfire.
They just fly straight out ahead of you, with no guidance system.

Paladin: Och, laddy, I ran into that Khajja bloke, not long ago.
'E's the coldest furball I've ever seen
I was flyin' with Dragon, out of Yellow jacket squadron...
We ran into Khajja the Fang while we were flyin' watchdog on a tanker.
We shot 'is wingmen to bits, and put 'is own shields and lasers out...
...but still 'e keeps comin'
We're tight on 'is tail, but 'e holds 'iscourse and fires off a missile.
One shot, right up the tanker's tailpipe, and she blows, big as day
An' while Dragon an' me are dodgin' 'er debris...
...the hairy bastard makes 'is escape!

Mission Briefing. Hell's Kitchen System, T hours, D.

Colonel: I don't have to tell you that our backs are against the wall here...
Of all the systems the Confederation held in Vega Sector...
...only Hell's Kitchen, Planck's Star and Alliance are still ours.
We've got refugee ships coming in from all over the sector.
For the next few days, we'll be busy making sure they arrive safely.

Hunter is Alive

Hunter is Dead

Colonel: $C and Hunter will take the first run...

Colonel: $C, you'll take the first run...

Colonel: Here's your flight plan...
You'll fly to Nav 1 to meet a Drayman jumping in from Chengdu.
Bring her straight back here to the Claw.
She'll be heavy with passengers, so she'll be moving slow.
That 'sport will be carrying hundreds of civilian refugees, $C.
I'm talking about children and old people...
...not trained soldiers or mercenaries.
So I want you to be very careful on this one.

The colonel quickly runs over the remaining assignments.

Colonel: One more thing, people...
We know there is at least one Kiltrathi cruiser already in this system.
We expect the enemy patrols near jump points to be heavy.
We believe several Kiltrathi aces are on board...
...including Khajja the Fang, whom some you have already met.

Hunter is Alive

Hunter is Dead

Paladin: Bloody glad to hear it! I'll be glad to 'ave another go at 'im!

Colonel: So everyone look alert out there.
Squadron dismissed.

IS this Hunter or Paladin? If Hunter Let Wedge know.

Bossman: We're likely to be coming up against an increasing number of big ships. It is important to know how to approach them. When attempting to destroy a large ship, such as a Fralthi... ...I prefer to attack from the rear. A large vessel's armor is always weakest around the engines.
Maniac is Alive		Maniac is Dead
Maniac: I hear the Kilrathi build 'em that way on purpose, Boss... ...to make the captains keep their noses pointed toward the enemy!
Bossman: I have heard that as well, Lieutenant... ...though I see no reason to believe Kilrathi captains are so cowardly.

Maniac: If you come in from the side, you'll have time to get in close... ....then you can really let the sucker have it

Mission Briefing. Hell's Kitchen System, T hours, D.

Colonel: The situation is getting worse, people. The Confederation's lost Planck's Star...
...and the Kilrathi forces there will be headed for us next. Since we're expecting an increased hostile presence...
...we'll send wings to recon every bogie in the system. SC, we've got a half-dozen bogies circling about 85,000 clicks out.

Hunter is Alive	Hunter is Dead
Colonel: I want you and Hunter to go check them out.	Colonel: I want you to go check them out.

Colonel: Computer, display Theta. They're circling a point here, at Nav 1. It looks like they're waiting for something to jump in. It could be just a tanker or a 'sport...
...but it might be the first of the Kilrathi warships from Planck's.

Hunter is Alive	Hunter is Dead
Hunter: Do we make a play for 'er, colonel, or is this just a look-see?	Maverick: Do we engage, colonel, or is this strictly recon?

Colonel: Even if it turns out to be a Fralthi...
...she'll never be as vulnerable as when she first jumps in. Anything else?
All right, then, let's get out into space. Squadron dismissed.

Hell's Kitchen 3 Rec room

Shotglass: Seen the news on the trid lately? Looks like the Kilrathi are startin' to land marines on Toadstool. That's the only habitable world in the Hell's Kitchen system, you know. If the Kilrathi can push our people off, we're finished here. They ran some footage of the fightin' on the planet... ...and it wasn't pretty. I don't think our boys can keep the Kilrathi off the civilians much longer.
Wingman in Rec Room	No Wingman in Rec Room
	Sure is quiet around the rec room these days.

Hunter: I was thinkin', mate. There's somethin' we might want to try...

Hunter: Iceman, 'ere, tells me tha' the furballs 'ave been plantin' mines around...	Hunter: I've 'eard the hairballs 'ave been plantin' mines around the system...
Hunter: I was thinkin' we might try to use those mines to our advantage. If we're dogfightin' near a mine field, why not try to lead 'em into it? There'll be more of them than there are of us... ...an' if we concentrate on the avoidin' the mines... ...while they're thinkin' of shootin' us, ...they might just run into a few mines by accident!

Iceman: Ah, $C, hello. Things are looking bad, aren't they? I've heard they've begun to plan for the evacuation of this system. The Kilrathi seem to be everywhere lately... ...and where they're not, they've left their mines behind them!
Hunter is Alive	Hunter is Dead
Hunter: Not to worry, mate. Their mines'll blow up their ships as soon as ours. Iceman: Hunter thought their mines could be used against them... ...but I'm not so sure.
Iceman: I say you can't be too careful when you're flying through a mine field!

Mission Briefing. Hell's Kitchen System, T hours, D.

Colonel: I know everyone's giving all they've got...
...but the Kiltrathi keep throwing more at us.
Sector Command has ordered the evacuation of civilians from Hell's Kitchen.
Maverick: I thought they were evacuating people TO Hell's Kitchen, sir, not from it...
Colonel: They were, $C. But the Kitchen turned out to be just a stopover.
So it's our job to hold the system as best we can...
...to cover the Confederate retreat.
Right now, several of our vessels are under attack around the system.
We'll be sending wings out to help in their defense.
$C, you'll fly Mu Wing to assist an Exeter-class Destroyer.

Hunter is Alive	Hunter is Dead

Colonel: Hunter will fly on your wing again.
Hunter: Once more into the breach, mate!

Colonel: Here's the situation...
The Exeter is currently at Nav 1...
You'll head straight for her, and help in her defense.
She's under attack by at least four Dralhti...

Dakhath is Alive	Dakhath is Dead
-------------------------	------------------------

Colonel: ...apparently led by the Deathstroke, Dakhath.

Colonel: So I want you to get over to that Exeter as fast as you can.
If you're intercepted, simply evade and proceed to Nav 1.
You are not to engage any enemy vessels en route, understand?

Hunter is Alive	Hunter is Dead

Hunter: Aw, colonel, that takes the fun out of it!

Maverick: I understand, sir. No distractions, no delays.
Colonel: Good. Any last questions?

Hell's Kitchen 4 Rec room

Shotglass: The Kilrathi scum have taken Toadstool...
 Just heard the news. They've got complete control of the planet.
 Since Planck's Star and Alliance fell, that was our last world in the sector.
 The order to pull out will have to come soon...
 Damn shame, too. Millions of people dead, dozens of worlds lost...
 ...just 'cause the Empire of Kilrah can't stand havin' neighbors.

Angel: Ah, $R $N. Bonjour.
 I have heard that the Kilrathi have sent all of their best against us now.
 Only our presence in this system prevents their control of the sector...
 ...so we will be facing only their finest pilots from now on.
 I have been reading the records of their leading aces...

Dakhath Is Dead	Dakhath is Alive
	Angel: To date, Dakhath Deathstroke has destroyed 86 of our starships and fighters.
Bhurak Is Dead	Bhurak is Alive
	Angel: Bhurak Starkiller has defeated 64 of our best pilots.
Bhurak Is Dead	Bhurak Is Alive

Khajja Is Dead	Khajja is Alive
	Angel: And Khajja the Fang leads the Empire of Kilrah with 99 victories. Mon dieu , I hope that none of us will be his hundredth!

Paladin: Och, lad, I reckon this fight's just about over.
 What a bloody disappointment it is, too...
 I spent me entire bloody life fightin' the Kilrathi...
 ...and now they chase us 'ome, with our tails between our legs
 Bloody damn shame, 'at's what it is...

Mission Briefing. Hell's Kitchen System, T hours, D.

Colonel: Well, ladies and gentlemen, it's all over. The last refugee transport has left Hell's Kitchen for the Home Worlds...
...and we've been ordered to pull out of the Vega Sector. The entire Confederate fleet is falling back to Proxima Centauri...
...to prepare for the defense of Deneb Sector. I need a volunteer wing to fly a mission that may well be suicide. I won't ask for volunteers until I've briefed you all on the mission. Computer, display Psi.
The Tiger's Claw is currently here. There's a Kilrathi destroyer -- a Ralari -- near Nav 1, here, and closing. The Tiger's Claw is headed for her jump point here, at Nav 2. There are dozens of enemy fighters in the area. I need someone to head off the Ralari, and detain or destroy her...
...while the Claw prepares for her jump. I want to point out that there are no guarantees on this one. The Tiger's Claw won't be able to wait for you once she's ready to jump. Whoever volunteers stands a good chance of being left behind...

Maverick: I'll do it, sir. I'll take that chance.

Hunter is Alive	Hunter is Dead
Hunter: 'At's the spirit, mate! Colonel, I want to fly 'is wing.
